

High Flier

February 26, 2010

The mission of Holy Trinity Lutheran School is to reach out to families and children with the Good News of Jesus through a Christ-centered, loving, and forgiving environment of academic excellence.

From the Director:

In two weeks we will be celebrating National Lutheran Schools Week (March 8-12). Each day we will have a different "dress-up day" theme for the students and everyone will want to be sure to check out our Book Fair that will be open all week as well. We will be moving our weekly chapel service to Friday of that week so that our grandparents are able to join us. Friday will be Grandparents Day and after chapel we will have a simple breakfast and opportunities to visit classrooms, the Book Fair, and see a puppet show performed by our 3rd graders.

We need the addresses of grandparents that are available to attend. Please use the form attached to this High Flier and send them to us ASAP so that we can get an invitation sent to them.

Thank you,
Bill Hiskey

CFA Scholarships - Holy Trinity Lutheran School wants to be able to provide a Christian education to families regardless of their income. For those that can demonstrate need there is a scholarship fund that can help with tuition. CFA is an outside agency that reviews a family's income and informs us of the amount of assistance needed. If you would like to apply for tuition assistance, please contact Bill Hiskey at 843-1001.

Congratulations to MacKenzie McIntyre (1st) and Zachary Schmaltz (2nd) for having their artwork chosen for the annual Scholastic Youth Art Exhibit. If you would like to see their artwork and many more of the area's children's work, you can visit the exhibit between March 1st and March 23rd at the Capitol Arts.

Box tops – Thanks to all of you who collected and sent in Box tops this year! Ms. Whittamore's Third grade collected the most Box tops and Conner Carr (3rd) was the student who turned in the most! Way to go 3rd Grade! The Kindergarten class was a very close second. A big thanks to Tammy Woodall for organizing our Box tops collection this year!
